

Norris Lozano

Founding Attorney

Dallas, Texas · (214) 531-3014 · norris@lozanolegaladvisors.com

BAR ADMISSIONS & MEMBERSHIPS

Bar admissions

State Bar of Texas (Admitted 1982)

Bar No. 12647700

Courts

United States Tax Court

United States District Court, Northern District of Texas

Professional memberships

American Bar Association — Tax Division

EDUCATION

Juris Doctor

Southern Methodist University School of Law — Dallas, Texas

Executive education

Artificial Intelligence for Business Executives — University of California, Berkeley

Graduate studies

Applied Information Management — University of Oregon

Undergraduate

B.A., Political Science and Music — The University of Texas at Dallas

AREAS OF PRACTICE

Tax Resolution. IRS representation, administrative and Appeals practice, United States Tax Court litigation, Offers in Compromise, Collection Due Process, penalty abatement, innocent spouse relief, trust fund recovery penalty defense.

Tax Credits. New Markets Tax Credits (NMTC), Low-Income Housing Tax Credits (LIHTC), Historic Rehabilitation Tax Credits, Renewable Energy Tax Credits (Investment Tax Credit and Production Tax Credit), Opportunity Zones, Employee Retention Credits.

Estate Planning. Wills, revocable and irrevocable trusts, powers of attorney, advance directives, probate, and business succession planning, including Medicaid-qualified estate preservation structures for Texas families.

Real Estate. Commercial and residential transactions, commercial leasing, title review, 1031 like-kind exchanges, real estate partnerships and joint ventures, development and land-use matters.

Business Entities. LLC, corporation, and partnership formation; operating agreements, shareholder agreements, and buy-sell structures; foreign qualification; dissolution.

General Corporate & Partnership. Corporate governance, partnership agreements, commercial finance and lending documentation, regulatory compliance, and complex commercial contracts.

REPRESENTATIVE PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Lozano Legal Advisors, PLLC Dallas, Texas

Founding Attorney · 2026 — Present

Founded the firm to combine 30+ years of commercial, tax credit, tax resolution, and estate planning practice under a single Texas firm operating on AI-augmented drafting and research infrastructure designed and built by Mr. Lozano.

Medicaid Filing Connections Dallas, Texas

Senior Attorney, Estate Planning — 2025 – Present

Advises Texas families on Medicaid-qualified estate preservation — restructuring finances to qualify for Medicaid within income and asset limits while preserving family wealth across generations.

Durfee Law Group Phoenix, Arizona

Senior Tax and Estate Planning Attorney — 2024 – 2025

Senior tax attorney on tax planning, estate planning, tax controversy, and tax structuring matters, including pass-through entity tax planning and risk management.

Axelon Tax Solutions Phoenix, Arizona

Chief Executive Officer & Senior Tax Attorney — 2024

Led tax resolution and controversy initiatives. Represented clients before the Internal Revenue Service in audits, appeals, and United States Tax Court proceedings. Advised on federal and state Renewable Energy Tax Credits (Investment Tax Credit, Production Tax Credit) supporting solar, wind, and clean-energy projects.

Dayes Law Firm Phoenix, Arizona

Senior Tax Attorney — 2024

Senior tax attorney on tax resolution, controversy, and Employee Retention Credit matters. Represented clients before the Internal Revenue Service in audits and appeals, including United States Tax Court.

Malibu / La Costa Consulting California

General Counsel — 2016 – 2022

Legal and tax consulting for individuals and businesses, specializing in New Markets Tax Credits, Historic Tax Credits, and structured large-scale real estate leveraged finance transactions combining tax credits and Opportunity Zone investments.

Pure Power Distribution Santa Monica, California

Chief Executive Officer & General Counsel — 2007 – 2016

Coordinated alternative solar power solutions with film and television studios and federal agencies, utilizing federal and state Renewable Energy Tax Credits. Syndicated Investment Tax Credit and Production Tax Credit transactions supporting solar, wind, and clean-energy projects.

Urban Development and Finance Santa Monica, California

Chief Executive Officer & General Counsel — 2007 – 2016

Led public/private real estate finance ventures and strategic alliances in tax-driven commercial real estate in partnership with the City of Los Angeles utilizing Low-Income Housing Tax Credits. Applied for and competitively secured $22 million in New Markets Tax Credits from the U.S. Treasury's CDFI Fund, successfully deployed to Los Angeles community projects.

Portland Family of Funds / United Fund Advisors Portland, Oregon

Chief Executive Officer, President & General Counsel — 2003 – 2007

Directed a $350 million public/private real estate development fund. Led the legal and drafting teams through the U.S. Treasury CDFI Fund's competitive New Markets Tax Credit application process, securing $180 million in allocation authority, and subsequently orchestrated transactions exceeding $1.1 billion using layered tax credit structures. Financed green city projects emphasizing USGBC LEED urban redevelopment.

Portland Development Commission Portland, Oregon

Director, Resource Development for Municipal Real Estate Projects — 2000 – 2004

Led one of the four core operating departments of the Portland Development Commission — a 300-person City of Portland redevelopment agency. Conceptualized and introduced novel financing models utilizing New Markets Tax Credits for renewable resources, community-driven initiatives, and sustainable development projects.

Short, How, Lozano & Frels Dallas, Texas

Partner — 18 Years

Partner handling syndications, commercial finance, commercial real estate, title, tax, savings and loan, banking, mortgage lending, and regulatory practice. Represented many of the largest financial institutions in Texas.

AWARDS & RECOGNITION

2007 Urban Land Institute — Award for Excellence, The Americas

For the Gerding Theater, Portland. The ULI's annual award for the most distinguished urban development projects in North and South America.

2007 American Institute of Architects Committee on the Environment — Top Ten Green Projects, Honorable Mention

For the Gerding Theater, Portland. The AIA COTE's annual recognition for the most significant green building projects in the United States.

2005 Harvard University — Innovations in American Government Award, Semifinalist

For the Portland New Markets Fund, a $100 million tax credit fund — named to the top fifty semifinalists from approximately 2,500 entries nationwide.

2004 Sustainable Industries Journal — 25 Green Building Leaders in the Northwest

Recognized for leadership in green building and sustainable urban redevelopment finance in the Pacific Northwest.

BOARD SERVICE

Portland Family of Funds — Director 2003 – 2007

United Fund Advisors — Director 2005 – 2007

Pure Power Distribution — Director 2007 – 2016

ECOAMERICA — Director 2007 – 2017